

AFFIRMATIVE.

Mr. President, Messrs. Carmichael, Gale and Hollyday—4.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Emerson, Howard, Jackson, Parnham and West—5.

Determined in the negative, and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill for the benefit of Aquila Beall, clerk of Prince-George's county court, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the engrossed bills from No. 126 to 132, inclusive, and from No. 135 to 154, inclusive; which were read, assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

Also a resolution in favour of William Byas, an old soldier, which was read the first, and by special order the second and third time, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates.

Also a bill, entitled, An act for the payment of the journal of accounts, and a resolution relative to bank reports; which were read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

And returns the bill, entitled, An act supplementary to the act, entitled, An act to regulate lotteries, endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendment;" which amendment was read the first, and by special order the second time, assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

Also returns the bill for the relief of sundry poor persons in the several counties therein mentioned, with the following message.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, February 14, 1820.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return you the bill, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry poor persons in the several counties therein mentioned. This house cannot recede from the fourth amendment proposed; the situation of Anne-Arundel county is peculiarly hard at this time. The last levy upon that county for out-pensions, amounted to the sum of two thousand seven hundred dollars, and it would be improper to increase the expenses of the county by more additions to the out-pensions. There have been this session many applications for similar relief, which have been rejected by the house and it would not be right, amid so many applications, to make a selection of a few. The other two amendments noticed by the senate, are so made as to answer the purpose of the bill. The house of delegates therefore hope, that the senate will, upon further consideration, accede to the amendments proposed.

By order,

J. BREWER, Clk.

Which was read.

The senate proceeded to the reading of the said amendments; the question was put, Will the senate assent to the 1st amendment? Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, Will the senate assent to the 2d amendment? Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, Will the senate assent to the 3d amendment? Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, Will the senate assent to the 4th amendment? The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Mr. President, Messrs. Carmichael, Hollyday, Howard, Jackson and West.—6.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Emerson, Gale, Maxcy and Parnham.—4.

Resolved in the affirmative, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

Also returns the engrossed bills of the senate No. 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, assented to.

The supplement to an act, entitled, An act to incorporate a company under the name of The Hydrant Company of Port Tobacco, was read the second, and by special order the third time, passed, and sent to the house of delegates.

The supplement to the act, entitled, An act to incorporate The Charitable Marine Society of Baltimore, was read the second, and by special order the third time, passed, and sent to the house of delegates.

The resolution in favour of the clerks was read the second, and by special order the third time, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates.

The supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the erection of a new market house in Hager's-Town, Washington county, was read the second, and by special order the third time, passed, and sent to the house of delegates.

The resolution relative to bankers and lottery office keepers, the resolution directing that the secretary of state be furnished with Kilty's laws, and the resolution in favour of Benjamin Pindle, were read the second, and by special order the third time, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill to enable Joseph Chain, of Talbot county, to purchase and hold real property within this state, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates.

The further supplement to the act, entitled, An act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road leading to Cumberland, and for the extension of the charters of the several banks in the city of Baltimore, and for other purposes, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will pass.

On motion of Mr. Howard to amend the title by striking out the whole from the word "entitled," the question was put, Will the senate strike out as proposed? Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, Will the senate receive the following in lieu thereof? "An act relating to the school fund in the several counties therein mentioned?" Resolved in the affirmative. Sent to the house of delegates.

The bill authorising the levy court of Baltimore county to assess and levy a sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned, was read the second, and by special order the third time, passed, and sent to the house of delegates.

The resolution relative to the purchase of Kilty's laws was read the second, and by special order the third time, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill for the relief of Rufus Eddy was read the second, and by special order the third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.